Protrans BC (Canada Line) receives 72 hours notice to strike from BCGEU

Protrans BC regrets to inform you that our 182 unionized employees who are members of the BC Government and Service Employees' Union (BCGEU) have now provided 72 hours notice to strike on the Canada Line.

Since the outbreak of the Covid-19 pandemic, the BC Government considers Canada Line as an essential service and we recognize passengers depend on this transit option each day. Protrans BC remains committed to bargaining towards a fair agreement for both parties as we encourage the union to continue meeting at the table before the strike commences. We began mediation this January through an appointed mediator from the BC Labour Relations Board following negotiations that began early 2020.

Service updates will be provided in the upcoming days. Please visit <http://protransbc.ca> for the latest news.

Thank you for your understanding.
